ORDER NO. 8015

AND NOW, this 23rd day of August, 2011:

WHEREAS, in Order No. 7485 (November 21, 2008), issued in Docket No. 08-391, the Delaware Public Service Commission (the "Commission") directed Delmarva Power and Light Company ("Delmarva") and any other interested parties to "convene at a collaborative workshop to determine the viability of implementing any reasonable demand-side management or demand response programs in the near term;" and

WHEREAS, Delmarva met with representatives of the Commission Staff and the Division of the Public Advocate on several occasions to discuss its Advanced Metering Initiative ("AMI") and implementation of demand response programs such as dynamic pricing and direct load control ("DLC"); and

WHEREAS, on July 29, 2011, Delmarva filed an application (the "Application") for approval of a residential air conditioning cycling program, Residential Direct Load Control Rider "R-DLC," which is "designed to reduce residential air conditioner compressor and central electric heat pump compressor load during summer periods of high electricity demand when wholesale market energy prices are high and available electricity supply is constrained" (Application at 3); and

WHEREBY, Delmarva states that the proposed residential DLC program, in conjunction with AMI and Delmarva's proposal to implement dynamic pricing, "will help customers across the state take greater control of their electricity usage by providing a simple automated method by which customers can reduce consumption during certain peak periods," can beneficially affect the high energy prices Delmarva's customers face due to periodic capacity constraints, and will enable customers to automatically reduce their energy use during critical peak events (Application at 2-3); and

WHEREAS, Delmarva has requested the Commission to waive the application of the Minimum Filing Requirements for base rate increases except for Part I.C. regarding the filing of testimony and supporting exhibits with the Application;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED BY THE AFFIRMATIVE VOTE OF NO FEWER THAN THREE COMMISSIONERS:

1. That the Commission hereby opens this docket to consider the Application of Delmarva Power and Light Company for approval of its proposed residential air conditioning cycling program.
